

Alabama Breeder Surrenders 63 Dogs to Atlanta Humane Society

October 20, 2015 (Atlanta, GA) – An Alabama breeder has surrendered 63 dogs to the Atlanta Humane Society. All dogs are returning to Atlanta now.

The dogs belonged to a breeder who is in failing health and asked for help. The Atlanta Humane Society arrived at the property early Tuesday morning and immediately began assessing the animals.

Dog breeds include Yorkshire Terriers, Poodle Mixes, Shih Tzus, and Chihuahuas. They range in age from newborn to 7-years.

The dogs were kept in kennels and in generally good health with the exception of dental disease. Most need grooming and a more extensive medical exam.

All animals are currently being transported to both Atlanta Humane Society shelters in Alpharetta and Midtown. Animals are expected to arrive at the Howell Mill Campus in Midtown at 3:00pm.

Animals are expected to be available for adoption as early as this weekend pending a full medical and behavioral evaluation.

Please continue to look for updates regarding adoption availability at www.atlantahumane.org and “Like” AHS on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AtlantaHumaneSociety.

For more information, contact:

Meredith Millwood
Director of Communications and Public Relations
MMillwood@atlantahumane.org
404.433.8447