Exclusive Art Exhibition Comes to Atlanta, Aims to Help End Animal Homelessness

January 29, 2015 (Atlanta, GA) – For the fifth year in a row, an exclusive art exhibition makes its way to Atlanta, all in the name of animal welfare.

The Fifth Annual Bonhams A Celebration of Dogs will take place Thursday, January 29th at the Bill Lowe Gallery in Miami Circle with all net proceeds benefiting the animals at the Atlanta Humane Society.

The event will feature highlights from Bonhams upcoming auction Dogs in Show and Field: The Fine Art Sale held in New York. The auction coincides with The Westminster Kennel Club 139th Annual Dog Show, which is scheduled to take place Monday and Tuesday, February 16-17.

This is the exclusive location of the exhibition outside of NYC and for Bonhams representative Mary Moore Bethea, it's an ideal venue. "Atlanta is home to a world-class arts community. It's why Bonhams Auctioneers and Appraisers continue to return to Atlanta and give art aficionados a preview of the upcoming auction."

200 plus guests are expected. BNY Mellon Wealth Management is the Presenting sponsor and Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices and Springmont Montessori are the Bronze sponsors.

Community Volunteer and event co-chair Karen Spiegel says the partnership was a natural fit. "This event is a fantastic way to give animal and art lovers something to admire before the pieces go up for auction. Above all else, the event helps to find loving homes to countless animals in need."

The Atlanta Humane Society, established in 1873, is Georgia's oldest, private, not for profit animal welfare organization. Last year, Atlanta Humane Society found loving homes for over 7,000 dogs and cats.
