

Atlanta Humane Society Seeking Pre-Construction Services

The Atlanta Humane Society seeks Construction Manager/General Contractor for two projects that will impact the lives of animals in Georgia

February 22, 2017 (Atlanta, GA) - The Atlanta Humane Society is seeking to engage with a Construction Manager/General Contractor for pre-construction services. These services would be for two building projects in the metro Atlanta area.

The first project would be a 13,000 square foot Animal Adoption Center in Atlanta, and the second a 25,000 square foot Animal Care Center in Alpharetta. These projects are being initiated as the Atlanta Humane Society accepts potential bids for their Howell Mill property and plans to invest more deeply into their mission.

To be considered, please send one copy of a letter of interest and qualifications to:

Stephen Jensen, AIA, Architect
1119 Elizabeth Street
Denver, CO 80206

And four copies to:

Atlanta Humane Society
ATTN: Monica Celizic
1565 Mansell Road
Alpharetta, GA 30318

Closing date for packages is March 10, 2017.
