

“purr purr”

We heard the best news—you’re taking one of us home soon!

All of us cats have been curling our tails and whispering about what it might be like to be part of a family like yours. Some of us are playful and curious, while others dream about cozy naps in sunny spots.

No matter who you choose, they’re going to be one lucky kitty!

When you visit, you might hear soft purrs, see twitching whiskers, or feel a gentle paw reaching out. That’s just us saying, “Hello, friend!”

We know you’ll find the perfect new friend here, and we can’t wait to see one of us start their new adventure with you!

See you soon,
