

“Woof woof!”

We heard the best news—you're taking one of us home soon!

All of us dogs have been wagging our tails and talking about what it might be like to be part of a family like yours. Some of us love to run and play, while others dream about quiet snuggles.

No matter who you choose, they're going to be one lucky pup!

When you visit, you might see wagging tails, hear happy barks, or feel a cold nose sniffing your hand. That's just us saying, "Hello, friend!"

We know you'll find the perfect new friend here, and we can't wait to see one of us start their new adventure with you!

See you soon,

The dogs and puppies of the Atlanta Humane Society

